

Shot at Window to Street.
Shortly after last midnight, Jennie Williamsburg, was shot in the chest while sitting by the front window of her home watching the celebration of the New Year. She was attended by Dr. Shaw of the Cumberland Street Hospital. The police believe the shot was fired from a house on Nostrand avenue, but were unable to find the person who fired it.

SWISS CHEESE, TONS OF IT, MELTED BY FIRE INTO A HUGE RAREBIT

Hospital Nearby, but Prompt Notice by Police Prevents Panic.

Tons of Swiss cheese in the five-story warehouse of O. Roth & Co., Importers of that commodity, at No. 15 Jay street, were turned into a huge rarebit by a fire that raged in the building for four hours early to-day.

The fire was discovered by Policeman Johnson after it had been burning for some time in the iceboxes on the third floor. After turning in an alarm the policeman notified William Lee, telephone operator at the Hudson Street Hospital, which is near the scene of the fire, and Supt. Gifford and the nurses went through the hospital closing windows to keep out smoke and assuring the 100 patients there was no danger.

STABBED WITH ICE PICK.

Police Held Hoeh a Hospital Prisoner as Attempted Suicide.

Max Hoeh, twenty-nine years old, a chauffeur, of No. 944 Kelly street, the Bronx, was found in the rear of No. 928 Kelly street early to-day with stab wounds in his left breast. The police say he stabbed himself with an ice pick and are holding him in Lebanon Hospital on a charge of attempted suicide.

According to the police, Hoeh quarreled with his wife, Elizabeth, at 1 o'clock this morning, and she ran out of the house on his threat to kill her and sought refuge with Mrs. Lena Ahearn at No. 928 Kelly street. Hoeh is alleged to have followed, and when he found himself unable to get in stabbed himself. He will recover.

OVERCOATS and SUITS for MEN

During the past week the eyes of New York men have been turned, by the thousands, upon the extraordinary clothing offerings made by SMITH-GRAY & CO. in this unprecedented Price-Upset.

We kept our fine factory, in Brooklyn, running far too long, expecting a bigger demand than ever, for our fine clothes for men.

But one thing after another depressed business. The Tariff Bill started the trouble. Then the Currency Bill worried other people. The depression of stocks in Wall Street made other men economize.

Then, the WARM, UNSEASONABLE WEATHER made thousands of men WAIT, and

We Had Our Tables and Stock-rooms Piled High with Fine CLOTHING

Ten days ago, with the WARM SUN shining in our doors, we decided to THROW AWAY PROFITS on many lines, and CUT DEEP INTO THE PRICES, to unload the great stocks piled up in our four stores.

For a whole week our four stores have been packed by enthusiastic men, eager to get their pick from the fine SMITH-GRAY stocks at such direct reductions from ACTUAL SELLING PRICES.

We shall have accomplished our purpose by Saturday night. Thousands of Overcoats and Suits are now being worn by the lucky men who secured them during the past week.

But YOU MUST ACT QUICKLY NOW, if you haven't secured YOURS.

The Unloading Sale ends on Saturday night. Just ONE MORE DAY to secure the BIGGEST BARGAIN in high-grade clothing that you ever bought. This list shows reductions from ACTUAL SELLING PRICES:

A Story of Women's Suits and Coats Each Such Extraordinary Value AT $10

That We Hesitate Which to Give Precedence To
A sudden call on the telephone from one of the best Suit manufacturers in New York with whom we do a vast amount of business every year advised our buyers of the fact that he was just about to move.

"Come Over and Take My Stock of Velvet and Plush Suits, Trimmed with Fur and Otherwise At Your Own Price"

You may, therefore, imagine what sort of VALUES to expect tomorrow when we had an invitation like this. We picked out

1,761 Suits, each a smart model for Winter Season 1913-14
Rich and luxurious, copies of Paul Poiret, Bernard and other distinguished Parisian designers.

Every One Will Be Sold at $10

Not a Suit the usual price of which was less than $18.75, while there are many that we, ourselves, sold earlier in the season for $25 to $40, and still one or two extra prizes which would sell at more than this.

All sizes for women and misses, beautiful linings of Dresden Silks, finished in every way like the fine garments they really are—newest pastel shades, browns, blacks and blues—combinations of chiffon broadcloth, skirts with brocade velvet and plush coats trimmed with fur.

There are some very handsome Russian models with Chamois leather girdle and lined with imported Dresden Silk—included also in this wonderful collection are imported Matelasses, Broadcloths, Velvets, Serges, Duvetyns and other rich imported fabrics and mixtures.

We also procured a number of very Handsome Suits in this assortment which we will sell at $6—not one among this lot which would regularly sell at less than $10, while there are many which usually sell at $12 and $16. You will find everything that is new, smart and fashionable in this assortment of some 186 Suits, and all sizes in the entire assemblage, 15 to 61.

The Other Half of Our Purchase Consists of 2,763 Women's Coats

And we say that we never in our whole experience in the Subway Store assembled such a fine assortment at this price.

Not a Coat That Would Regularly Sell at Less Than $16.50 Each at $10

While some would reach the $25 mark, and the average choosing will be rich in values.

You will find Coats in all sizes and lengths in the smartest Winter styles—magnificent Bouclets with handsome velvet collars and soft satin lining; luxurious Plushes with reversed effects; Coats of Scotch mixtures, fine and warm for rough weather.

Many of these Coats are rich enough to use as wraps, and among them you will find such as Ural Lamb, Diagonals, Zibelines, Tweeds and Arabians and a representative from the whole family of the pile fabrics.

Also About 500 Coats Which Will Be Sold at $7.50
Regular Price Would Be $12.50 to $15

You will find a wide assortment of materials, well finished, all silk or satin lined or made of double-faced fabrics—all sizes in the assortment, from a 14-year old child's to a 44 size for a woman.
